Grow Wheat in Western Canada One Crop Often Pays for the Land

Western Canada offers the greatest advantages to home seekers. Large profits are assured. You can buy on easy payment terms.

Fertile Land at $15 to $30 per Acre— land similar to that which through many years has averaged from 20 to 45 bushels of wheat to the acre. Hundreds of cases are on record where in Western Canada a single crop has paid the cost of land and production. The Government of the Dominion and Provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta want the farmer to prosper, and extend every possible encouragement and help to Grain Growing and Stock Raising.

Though Western Canada offers land at such low figures, the high prices of grain, cattle, sheep and hogs will remain. Loans for the purchase of stock may be had at low interest; there are good shipping facilities; best of markets; free schools; churches; splendid climate; low taxation (none on improvements). For particulars as to location of lands for sale, more, illustrated literature, reduced railway rates, etc., apply to Sup't. of Immigration, Ottawa, Can., or M. V. MacInnes, 176 Jefferson Ave., Detroit, Mich.

Caprices in Summer Dress Accessories

In dress accessories Fashion can indulge her fondness for caprice with greatest certainty of success. Modistes who turn out the beautiful hats of midsummer, take advantage of this and occasionally take the same materials they have used for millinery to make bags. They help to furnish variety in these indispensable belongings and demonstrate how chic hats and bags to match may be. Even the happy owner of a fine head bag might cast approving eyes upon these matched sets, for novelty makes the strongest kind of appeal and she who may not have the much-admired head bag may achieve a triumph in one of these millinery affairs.

Every woman knows the loveliness of leghorn hats. They have come down to us through generations of fair women. In the picture one of them has sacrificed its straw crown and replaced it with one of draped taffeta, with a rose and immortelles posed at the front. In the bag to match, a plaque of leghorn makes the bottom of a bag of taffeta like that on the crown of the hat and we infer that it is made from the top of the original crown. A big silk tassel hangs from this plaque. Bands and puffs of taffeta finish the top of the bag and form its handle. A rose and immortelles appear again on the bag as on the hat. It was a bright idea of the designer to pose these little everlasting flowers on leghorn.

Two colors in a faille ribbon are set together to form the handsome bag at the center of the picture. The colors alternate and the point at the bottom is set off with those fashionable little, flower-like straw ornaments that have held good throughout the season, in millinery. The hat to match has a broad brim and ribbon crown, the ribbon woven 'over and under' about the wide crown and lying in strips on the top. The same small straw ornaments nestle against the brim.

The daintiest of these sets is worked out in half braid. It appears at the right in a hat with hair braid brim and crown, draped with a striped ribbon and trimmed with roses. The bag is made of two plaques of hair braid, joined by a puff of ribbon like that on the hat and lined with satin. Velvet ribbon is used for the handle and bow on the bag and flowers find it the best of all backgrounds.

Separate Skirts, Smart and Informal

It is again day for separate skirts. They appear this summer in all sorts of fabrics for nearly all sorts of occasions. Starting out as purely practical and utility garments, they progressed into the more practical of dressy afternoon clothes, and then advanced into the smartest of sport wear. The advent of new weaves in silk boosted the cause of the separate skirt along, and now no fabric is too sheer and dainty to make the dressiest of these convenient belongings. Organdie, voile, georgette crepe lend a summery charm to them. Occasions where one wishes to be smartly but informally dressed seem to multiply and the separate skirt fits in with them perfectly.

The two skirts shown in the picture are of fantail silk and are worn with georgette blouses. The heavy rib and lustrous surface of this silk take the place of trimming. By using the silk so that the rib in it runs one way in the skirt and another in bands or girdle, there is all the ornament that good designing requires. This is illustrated in the skirt model at the left in which the wide girde is made of alternating bands of the silk, two of them with the rib running perpendicularly set together and edged by narrow bands in which the rib is horizontal. There are small set-in pockets at each side. Silk in two colors and of two kinds gives a good account of itself in the skirt at the right of the picture. The 'over part of the model is of colored fantail silk, set onto a plain white satin yoke at the hip line. The joining is managed well by cutting the top of the fantail portion into a "battlement" line. There are five small pearl buttons at the front of the skirt near the bottom and its wide girde of the fantail silk fastens with two very large pearl buttons at the front.

RINGS CHURCH BELL; IS FREED

Man Locked in Belfry as Result of Joke Perpetrated by Friends.

BIG CROWD GATHERS

Pastor and Parishioners Aroused From Their Slumbers and Forty Motor-cars Attracted by the Noise Made by Seaman.

New York.—James M. Howard, pastor of the Bedford Park Presbyterian church, who saw service as a chaplain with the Seventy-seventh division overseas, has been going to bed early since his return to America some time ago, and until 11 o'clock one night recently nothing had occurred to disturb his slumbers.

He scarcely dozed off when he dreamed that the bell in the steeple of his church was ringing as though sounding a warning of an attack by hostile airplanes.

The dream soon resolved itself into a partial reality, and sitting up in bed he realized that it was in fact the bell in the steeple of his church on the corner of Two Hundredth street and Bainbridge avenue, the Bronx, and that fully 40 automobiles filled with people were in front of the church looking at the belfry.

He dressed and as he was about to go out of the door met Policeman Charles Hess of the Bronx Park station, whose attention had been attracted by the crowd and the ringing of the bell. Accompanied by the policeman and the sexton of the church, who had also appeared on the scene, the former chaplain let himself into the building and the trio proceeded to investigate.

Pushing open the door of the belfry he discovered Donald Hobson of 2436 Morris avenue, who recently was released from the navy, and who is one of his own parishioners.

In a few words, however, Hobson was able to explain his end of the case. It seems that before he enlisted in the navy, two years ago, he had been a prominent member of the Bedford Park Glee club and that upon his return to civilian life his companions had decided that it was time to stage a concert in honor of his safe return. He had been made the victim of a practical joke by his friends.

POLICE DOG IS REAL HERO

Breaks Leg While Herding Boys Out of Danger of Speeding Automobiles.

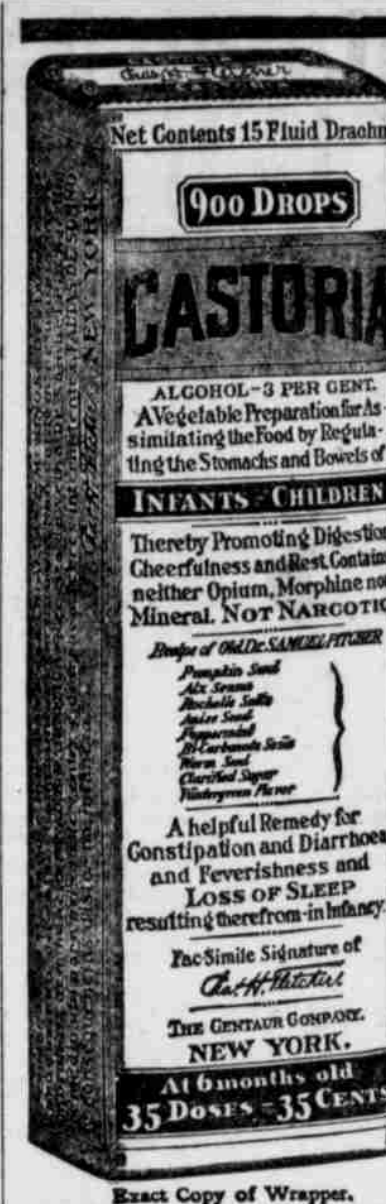

New York.—Bum, the celebrated police dog of the Brownsville station, has been granted a sick leave, so that a broken hind leg, received in the performance of duty, may mend.

Bum was led into the station by Policeman Becker. He refused to allow his escort to carry him. He stood at attention while Becker made a report of the case and went with Becker to the policeman's home, where he will stay until the leg is better.

Bum was on duty with Policeman Becker in Pitkin avenue, near Bristol street. Some children in Bristol street screamed at the approach of an automobile and Bum dashed out. The children were not hit, but he was run over, and when he got up his left leg was dangling. A surgeon on a passing ambulance set the leg, and the neighborhood veterinary put it in splints.

Bum is a French poodle with a long pedigree. He was acquired by the Brownsville station about three years ago. Along Pitkin avenue he tours with his favorites, who are Policemen Becker, Kanuch and Schneidermuller. He rides in passing automobiles, street cars and is always on the patrol wagon when it makes its rounds. He is indispensable in keeping crowds back at fires.

Pitkin avenue merchants recently presented Bum with a sweater coat.

BUFFALO BURLAP CO.
57 Adams Street Buffalo, N. Y.
W. N. U., DETROIT, NO. 27-1919.

He is Ignorant of English. Seeing a peculiar headline in a Boston paper, the telegraph editor turned it upside down and read it backwards. He could get no meaning out of it—"Four-Ply Slam by McNally Kavo Blow"—So he set out after enlightenment.

"Cinch," said the sporting editor, with a withering glance. "It means McNally slammed out a round trip and put the game on ice."

"Why McNally made the circuit and broke their hearts," chipped in the police court man.

"Yep. He hit her on the nose for four sacks; good night"—the society reporter.

"I'll tell you, old man," at last spoke up the city editor patronizingly. "You have to have it in kindergarten style. 'Four-ply slam' equals 'horror.' 'Kavo' equals 'K. O.' which equals 'knockout.' Get me?"

"G-r-r-r!" growled the tel. ed. "Mebbe. Mebbe. But it's probably an 'ad' for a new breakfast food."—Brockton Enterprise.

The Soldier's Protest.

Bishop Flipper said in Atlanta: "A colored chaplain was addressing a squad of colored men back of Barle-Duc.

"'Boys,' he said, 'Satan is powerful, but he is not omnipotent. He is bound with chains, yet he can get at you'—and the chaplain pointed to a Mobile soldier—and he can get at you'—and he pointed to a soldier from Washington—and he can get at you'—and he pointed to a soldier from Paint Rock.

The Paint Rock soldier gave a grunt.

"'Why, boss,' he protested, 'the old cuss might as well be loose.'"

Animal Diseases Costly.

Animal diseases, such as hog cholera, the foot-and-mouth disease, etc., are costing the farmers and the general public an enormous sum each year, although agricultural leaders have been waging an effective fight upon such epidemics. Ultimately the farmers will be enjoying the use of about $200,000,000, which they now lose each year through these causes.
